The diagram illustrates a classroom layout with a teacher's position on the left and a student's position on the right. The teacher's text, "(teacher's text)", is located in the lower-left quadrant, and the student's text, "(student's text)", is located in the lower-right quadrant. Both texts are enclosed in rounded rectangular boxes. Above each text box is a large Korean character, "가" (ga), which is part of a larger label "가" (ga) positioned at the top center of the diagram. The diagram is composed of a grid of dots and lines, with the teacher's text box and student's text box being the only ones with a solid black background. The overall layout is symmetrical, with the teacher's text box on the left and the student's text box on the right.
